A Review of ABC's 89th Season

The American Bowling Congress was in the forefront as several advancements pushed the sport of bowling that much closer to becoming part of the Olympic Games.

The Olympic dream was an important part of ABC's 1983-84 season, although the year also included an important equipment breakthrough which hopefully will develop more consistent lane inspections, a Federation Internationale des Quilleurs World title for Tony Cariello of Chicago and a surprise victory in the ABC Masters Tournament by a retired bowler — but not much of a surprise since his name was Earl Anthony.

The 93rd Convention of Delegates attracted a record 1,329 representatives from local and state associations to the MGM Grand Hotel in Reno, Nev. on March 23. The first item on the legislative agenda was a package of eight amendments providing for minor changes in the ABC Constitution to pave the way for ABC to be accepted as a member of the United States Olympic Committee. The delegates gave their approval, but that was only the first step among several during the next few months.

The USOC then granted joint membership to the ABC and Women's International Bowling Congress on April 7 in Colorado Springs. Although bowling was accepted as a Group C member — meaning a non-competitive status — it was hoped the sport would be included as a demonstration sport in the 1988 Olympics in South Korea and a medal sport in 1992.

More recognition was achieved just a few days later when Roger Tessman, ABC Executive Secretary and acting FIQ President, appeared before the International Military Sports Council (CISM) general assembly in Singapore, and bowling was accepted as an invitational sport for CISM competition in 1985.

Finally, plans were completed for the International Amateur Bowling Tournament in Las Vegas as another example of the international nature of the sport. Invitations were sent to 30 United States bowlers and 18 from foreign countries.

CONVENTION delegates got a look at a lane dressing measuring device which captures the comparative amounts of dressing on a bowling lane. An implementation timetable was established which would have the device available to associations for the 1986-87 season. Another device unveiled at the Convention was one for measuring coefficient of friction for bowling balls, although testing only began in 1984 and any application towards new regulations likely would be in the future.

ABC's membership figures had a new look since all associations had converted to the individual membership program for the first time in 1983-84. The final figures showed 3,791,081 males participated in sanctioned competition. The playing strength, which was the figure used to determine ABC's membership in previous years, stood at 4,453,782. That was a 103,125 decrease from 1982-83 for a drop of 2.2%.

Tessman offered an explanation of the membership figures:

"In making the change to the individual membership plan, there was some question among officers and staff regarding exactly what our numbers were going to be. By correlating the dues with the membership, we can identify our position. In addition, this will provide a base for future comparisons. The ABC is concerned about the continually decreasing membership, which also is being felt by other bowling related organizations, and we are taking steps to attack that problem."

While membership dropped, the number of sanctioned leagues rose by 294 to 140,234. Another increase saw the number of local associations grow by five to 2,777.

Membership also decreased in the WIBC and the Young American Bowling Alliance. WIBC membership dipped by 80,511 to 3,866,718, while the YABA listed 744,244 members, a decline of 21,008 from its initial season. The YABA showed a gain of 1,599 members to 8,143 in its special program for handicapped youngsters. Figures for the YABA Collegiate Division were down 2,850 to 13,468.

The total number of bowlers in ABC, WIBC and YABA serviced out of Bowling Headquarters was 8,402,043.

There was no change among the state top 10 ranking positions by playing strength in ABC figures. California and New York continued to rank 1-2 at 401,399 and 382,450, respectively. Two states showed an increase in playing strength, Texas and Florida, with eighth place Texas rising by 3,255 to 199,565.

On the local association level, the biggest gain was registered by Denver, which jumped up four places to rank as the sixth largest in playing strength with 45,248. Denver's playing strength increase of 1,996 also was the largest of any association in the top 25. Los Angeles was the other association in the top 10 to post an increase, while Columbus (Ohio), Citrus Belt (Calif.) and Baltimore also rose in playing strength among the top 25. Los Angeles moved up two places to join the top 10 in 10th place, while Houston slipped out of the top 10, going from ninth to 11th. Detroit again easily topped all local associations with a playing strength of 142,976, more than 50,000 ahead of runnerup Chicago.

Another bright note was an increase of 1,673 lane beds for the season. The total of 159,877 ranked fifth alltime and came about despite a decline of 47 establishments to 8,720. Those figures supported the continued rise in the average number of lanes in an ABC certified establishment to 18.33, up from 16.73 last season.

Perhaps the message of playing the game under ABC rules was beginning to sink in, because the pattern of increased suspensions by the ABC Legal Committee each year reversed itself. Indefinite and one year suspensions were handed out to 1,057 bowlers, a decline of 336 from 1982-83, and suspensions held in abeyance fell from 154 to 103. The committee reinstated 122 bowlers and denied six reinstatements. Another 215 were given amnesty, and 42 cases either had no action taken or were dismissed.

THE longest ABC Tournament in history — 112 days — was conducted on the 40 specially installed lanes at the Reno-Sparks Convention Center. New records also were established by a $1.6 million prize fund and participation by more than 43,000 competitors.

The individual standout was Bob Goike of Detroit, who set a Regular Division all events record of 2142. The 30 year old pro shop owner rolled 672 in the team event, 710 in doubles and 760 in singles. The old record also had been set in Reno when Bud Debenham, then of Los Angeles, shot 2117 in 1977. Goike took home $6,000 from the 1984 Tournament by supporting his all events title with a tie for third in singles, fourth in doubles with Bob Albright and a top 25 finish in the team event.

A familiar name among ABC bowlers, Rod Toft of St. Paul, Minn., captained the Minnesota Loons No. 1 to the Regular team title with 3228. Toft, 1981 all events champion, rolled 683, while George Peterson had 688, Todd Savoy 684, Terry Schacht 599 and Denny Schacht 574. The Loons had team games of 1121, 1095 and 1012.

Goike's score was too much to catch, but Toft finished second in all events with 2046. The Loons also captured the team all events crown with 9562.

In repeating a habit of recent years, a champion emerged in the final days of the Tournament. Chris Cobus, the 1978 all events titlist, and John Megna of Milwaukee won doubles in the final week with 1383, knocking another pair of Milwaukee area bowlers, Ron Wheeler and Mark Kuglitsch, out of first place. Kuglitsch and Wheeler were trying to become the first doubles champions to repeat, having triumphed in 1967.

A tie for first place in singles occurred for the first time since 1916 when Bob Antczak of Chicago rolled 764 on the Tournament's second day, and he was matched by Neal Young of Louisville, who exceeded his previous high series by more than 100 pins.

J&D Lawn Service of Lincoln, Neb., paced by Dennis Gage's 708 series, took over first place in the second week and held on to win the Booster division championship with 2820.

Anthony, 46, said he came to the Masters to "have fun and see some old friends from the tour," but some of his fellow pro bowlers may have wished he'd stayed in Dublin, Calif. after he walked off with the $40,600 first prize and the Frank K. Baker trophy.

Anthony hadn't competed on the Professional Bowlers Assn. tour in nearly eight months, but he moved through the match play rounds unbeaten to qualify No. 1 for the finals which were televised by the Mizlou Network. He needed to win just one game and that was accomplished with a 191-175 victory over Gil Sliker. Rick Minier placed third after winning two games on the TV finals, with George Pappas fourth and Mark Baker fifth.

Masters week concluded with a successful National Seniors tournament for ABC and WIBC state champions. The ABC Seniors champions were: A Division (70-over), William Andberg, Anoka, Minn.; B (65-69), Bill Gilmore, Eureka, Kan.; C (60-64), Walter Brooks, Phillipsburg, Mont.; D (55-59), Harold Clore, Cameron, Texas. Another national champion was determined during the week when Jack Jurek of West Texas State University won the Association of College Unions-International Championships all events title by nearly 100 pins over Dave Argenti of Auburn.

Rod Toft of St. Paul, Minn. long will remember the 1983-84 season. He was captain of the Minnesota Loons No. 1 team which won both the ABC Tournament Regular Division championship and team all events crown, as well as finishing second himself in all events, and he represented the United States in international competitions.

CARIELLO's finest hour came in October 1983 in the closing event of the 10th FIQ World Amateur Championships in Caracas, Venezuela. Cariello, the 1983 ABC Tournament all events titlist, captured the men's championship by defeating favored Mats Karlsson of Sweden in three straight games.

Cariello provided the U.S. with its lone gold medal, although the five player team of Gordon Vadakin, Toft, Darold Meisel, Rich Wonders and Cariello won a silver (second place) medal. Wonders picked up two bronze medals, finishing third in all events and in trios with Cariello and Meisel.

Caracas also was the site of the Pan American Games in 1983, and bowling was included as a demonstration sport for the first time. Wonders placed second in the individual championship, third in singles and teamed with Toft for second in doubles. Toft, Wonders, Jean Hammond and Mary Lou Vining gave the U.S. second in mixed foursomes, and Hammond won a pair of gold medals, the individual title and doubles with Vining.

Still another international event was conducted in the summer of 1984 when Paeng Nepomuceno of The Philippines and Mary Mohacsi of Detroit won the men's and women's titles, respectively, of the first International Amateur Bowling Tournament. The stepladder finals were televised live by CBS.

The ABC Convention Week would not be complete without the dramatic Hall of Fame induction ceremonies on the ABC Tournament lanes. Joining the list of bowling greats on March 22 were Dick Ritger of River Falls, Wis. and the late Norm Meyers of St. Louis in the performance section and Milt Rudo of Chicago in the meritorious service section.

Convention delegates also heard of progress in the Certified Lane Inspectors Workshop program during the National Bowling Council presentation. The joint project of the ABC and WIBC resulted in more than 50 men and women being certified as instructors after completing the Train the Trainers course.

THE total number of ABC awards distributed decreased by nearly 8,000 in 1983-84, but honor score awards continued to climb. There were 6,447 300 games, a rise of 417 from 1982-83, while 299 games were up 29 to 3,092 and 298 games up 51 to 1,587. The number of 800 series rose 65 to 1,234.

The closing workshop session of the Convention saw the presentation of eight Service Awards to local association officials by ABC President Wes Bogle. Receiving the awards were San Antonio, Texas; Ithaca and Cortland, N.Y.; Midland, Mich.; Davenport, Iowa; Portland, Ore.; Humboldt, Calif., and Springfield, Ill.

Several ABC officials took part in one of bowling's finest moments on June 1-2 when the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum was opened in downtown St. Louis. It also was announced that the Hall's library would be named for ABC Secretary Emeritus Frank K. Baker, and the Living Memorial in Baker's name was increased by several thousand dollars during fund-raising activities at the Convention.

Robert Beck, an 18 year old high school senior from Houston, Texas, was presented the fifth annual Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow award, honoring him as the top junior bowler in the country. Hall, YABA Executive Director, made the presentation during the ABC delegates' session.

Lane Certificate Amendment Adopted; Pin Weights Effective in 1985

The record 1,329 delegates attending the 93rd American Bowling Congress Convention approved a nearly complete rewrite of Article 7 of the ABC Constitution during its annual meeting on March 23 in the Fronton Center of the MGM Grand Hotel in Reno, Nev.

The new Article 7 defines the responsibilities of a proprietor pertaining to the issuance and retention of an ABC Regulation Bowling Lane Certificate and the steps to be followed for withdrawal of that certificate.

The delegates approved 18 other amendments, rejected four and deferred two. One, dealing with extending the effective date of 1983 legislation increasing the minimum pin weight of bowling pins, was withdrawn. The pin weight amendment, providing for all wooden bowling pins to fall in the weight range of 3 pounds, 6 ounces to 3 pounds, 10 ounces, will become effective Aug. 1, 1985. Another amendment was approved setting the minimum weight of synthetic pins at the same 3 pounds, 6 ounces.

Approval was given to an amendment to change the date on which ABC officers assume office from Aug. 1 to May 1. Bowlers became eligible for a new all spare game award, which was prompted by the money saved from a previous legislative change to limit the issuing of 700 emblems. The delegates rejected a proposal to provide bowlers with 700 emblems in each league in which a 700 series was bowled.

William D. DeHaven of Dayton, Ohio was elected as the 71st ABC President, and Lawrence Schafer of Macon, Ga. was elected 10th Vice President. New jurisdictional directors elected for one year terms were: Paul D. Boller, Miami, Fla.; Robert F. Cottrill, Bloomfield, N.J.; Harold L. Jacoby, Northglenn, Colo.; Marvin C. Kettelhut, Palm Bay, Fla., and Maurice E. Smith, Chicago.

Convention delegates lined up to vote for the slate of officers and directors.

Condensed Convention Minutes

The 1984 American Bowling Congress Convention of the officers, Board of Directors and delegates was convened at 9 a.m. in the MGM Grand Hotel in Reno, Nev. on March 23, 1984.

ABC President H. Wesley Bogle officially opened the meeting and introduced Richard Hicks, who sang the National Anthem, and the Rev. Robert Bowling, who gave the invocation.

Memorial services were narrated by Mike Bennett of radio station KRNO, and he was accompanied by buglers John Peterson and John Detweiler of Reed High School.

Welcoming messages were delivered by Nevada Lt. Gov. Robert Cashell, Reno Mayor Pete Sferrazza, Dick Scott, chairman of the Reno-Sparks Convention and Visitors Authority, and Convention Authority Executive Director Jay Milligan.

Mrs. Helen Baker, Women's International Bowling Congress President, reported on the cooperation between the WIBC and ABC on several projects. First, was the launching of the Certified Lane Inspectors Workshop, a program which was developed only after many meetings and discussions between the two groups. She mentioned that several WIBC board members have taken the Train the Trainers course and are qualified to conduct CLIWs. Second, Mrs. Baker announced that, as of Aug. 1, 1984, WIBC will be participating in the administration and financial support of the ABC Lane Certification Department. Third, Mrs. Baker urged the delegates to support the package of Olympic amendments in leading toward acceptance on April 5 by the United States Olympic Committee.

Bob Zellner, President of the Bowling Writers Association of America, listed several definitions of what bowling means to different people and reminded the delegates of their responsibility in helping to govern the millions of bowlers.

Harry Wells, Bowling Proprietors Association of America President, said he felt the ABC, WIBC, BPAA and the bowling game as a whole can be on the threshold of one of the "most successful and significant gains in more than a decade." He said comparisons of the bowling industry for the past four or five years show it to be a "sick and possibly dying man." He noted the ABC was bothered by high scoring problems, and the WIBC and Young American Bowling Alliance also had their particular worries. But, through research, study, accumulation of facts and data and review, Wells believed the ABC, WIBC, BPAA and National Bowling Council were on the right track toward treating the ailments.

President Bogle announced that Professional Bowlers Assn. Commissioner Joe Antenora had planned to speak to the delegates but was laid up in his Akron home with a broken ankle. He read a letter of thanks from Antenora on the cooperation between ABC and the PBA.

Lance Elliott, NBC Executive Director, talked of NBC's role in developing the CLIW and helping train the first groups of people who would be the actual trainers. He said another NBC educational effort was revamping and improving its Certified Bowling Instructor program. NBC also was working to develop an effective program for high school and college bowling programs, part of which is helping conduct the National Collegiate Bowling Championships. Also on the youth level, he said NBC is developing a Cub Scouts of America Bowling Manual to attract the 1,600,000 Cub Scout members in the U.S. He asked for help from the delegates in spreading the word on both the Cub Scout program and NBC's continuing work with the Explorer Scouts, the teenage segment of scouting.

Elliott told of a successful promotional effort in 1983 with the Quaker Oats Company which resulted in 2,106,248 free games bowled, and more than 120,000 of those people indicated they were willing to become league members. He added that the Eveready Battery Division of Union Carbide agreed to sponsor another free game program in 1984 with several improvements over its '83 program.

Elliott said NBC is embarking on a major motivational study to find out why people do, and do not, bowl, using a personal interview format which will allow deeper probing into a person's thoughts about bowling. He noted such information would be vital in trying to attract more corporate sponsors of bowling activities and advertising. In connection with his presentation, Elliott showed several film clips.

President Bogle introduced Columbia 300 Vice President Pepper Martin, who presented a $34,000 check as Columbia's part in sponsoring the ABC Masters Tournament.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: At this time I will appoint several special committees that may be needed during today's Convention.

The Conference Committee consists of Perry Brown, New York City; Wes Thompson, Tulsa, Okla.; Stan Schreier, Southeast District, Calif.; Boyd Pexton, chairman of the ABC Legal Committee; Henry Lapinski, chairman of the ABC Rules Committee, and Max Skelton, ABC Legislative Study Committee.

On the Ballot Committee will be John Halferty, San Diego; Elwin Isham, Burlington, Vt., and Carl Harrison, Peoria, Ill.

The Credentials Committee will consist of Ted Melonis, Omaha, Neb.; Chris Brugnola, Jersey City, N.J., and Kenneth Knapp, Los Angeles.

We will now have the roll call by the ABC Secretary, Roger Tessman.

ROGER TESSMAN: Mr. President, I am advised by the staff that there are 1,280 officers, directors and delegates registered. This is the count as of this time and this constitutes a quorum so the lengthy roll call will not be necessary.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: Next is the reading of the minutes. The chair recognizes Wayne Todd of Denver.

TODD: Mr. Chairman, I move that we dispense with the reading of the minutes. Seconded by Michael Ricker, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: Is there any discussion? Hearing none, all in favor signify by saying aye. Those opposed signify by saying nay. By your action you have dispensed with the reading of the minutes.

The next item on the agenda is the President's report and I am pleased to present it to you at this time.

Gentlemen, it is my pleasure to report to you that since the Convention in Niagara Falls, considerable progress has been made toward gaining membership in the U.S. Olympic Committee.

As a result of your directive last year to pursue such membership, I appointed an ABC Olympic Committee, headed by Frank K. Baker, our Secretary Emeritus. Members of his committee and staff conferred with Olympic representatives in the preparation of our application.

In conjunction with this, a package of eight amendments to our Constitution is on the legislative agenda for your consideration later today. The proposals are designed to meet Olympic Committee membership requirements. We are hopeful that their adoption will lead to favorable consideration of our application.

Our committee has, of course, kept the Women's International Bowling Congress apprised of what we are doing. Both organizations are hopeful that tenpin bowling will be granted demonstration status in the 1988 Olympic Summer Games in Seoul, Korea and become a medal sport in 1992.

ABC and WIBC also are working diligently to have bowling made a medal sport in the next Pan Am Games. Last year, it was a demonstration sport.

On the international scene, our team performed well in both the Pan Am Games and the Federation Internationale des Quilleurs World Championships, both of which were held last fall in Caracas, Venezuela.

We are hopeful of having the United States host the FIQ World Championships in 1995, the 100th anniversary of the founding of ABC. The FIQ has been so advised.

Roger Tessman, our Executive Secretary-Treasurer, was elected vice president of FIQ in Caracas, and on Dec. 31, Frank Baker completed his term as FIQ President. In late January, death claimed the life of Soetopo Jananto of Indonesia, who had succeeded to the FIQ presidency. This means that Mr. Tessman will head the FIQ until its next meeting.

We are more than happy to donate some of his time to FIQ, and all of us can be very proud that we have men such as Roger Tessman and Frank Baker to be given world leadership roles in bowling. It certainly reflects well on ABC.

Another committee I appointed is the Rule Book Study Committee. It will take several years for this committee to complete its assignment, but the work is finally underway.

The current season has seen much progress on the lane inspection front. Sessions held under the aegis of the National Bowling Council at the ABC-WIBC testing facility in Greendale have resulted in the training of 51 trainers who in turn are conducting 2-1/2 day local sessions, which as of Feb. 23 have resulted in the certification of 25 inspectors.

As this program, which is being implemented by ABC-WIBC, goes forward, we will have enlarged the number of male and female lane inspectors throughout the country, both for certification and for honor scores.

In conjunction with this, a device designed to virtually eliminate the human element in measuring lane distribution is ready for testing in the field. I am cautiously optimistic that it will prove to be an effective tool.

For the first time in the long history of the ABC, we all are on the individual membership plan. At the end of this season, we will know our actual membership for the first time.

The actual membership count for each local bowling association and our total national membership can only be obtained by making sure all members of each sanctioned league have paid their annual dues.

Bowlers who join a league after the initial sanction has been filed must, of course join ABC if they already have not become members in another sanctioned league.

This means all bowlers in sanctioned leagues receive benefits. Therefore, dues should be collected uniformly from all to fairly share the cost of local and national service programs.

Supplementary memberships are important to ABC because they bring in additional revenue; they are even more important to each local association because they increase the funds available for local programs.

Construction of the new shrine to bowling, the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum in St. Louis, has been completed. The exhibits are being put into place for the formal opening and dedication on June 2, 1984.

Many local associations already are cooperating with the local women's association, the local YABA association and the proprietor group in the formation of local bowling councils. Others need to follow their lead because if bowling is going to prosper, it needs the cooperation of all integers of the sport.

This is why I am recommending that ABC continue its support of the National Bowling Council and the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum. These are industry-wide undertakings which enhance our sport and which merit our wholehearted support.

I find that the American Bowling Congress is in good condition in all aspects and continues to improve.

Of course, we still have some problems, but we always will have some problems. The important thing is to be able to deal with them. We are very fortunate to have dynamic leadership on both the board and staff levels. When I conclude my term of office and turn my presidency over to Bill DeHaven, I know the Congress will be in good, experienced hands.

During my term, I have been privileged to represent all of you in such diverse places as Venezuela, Canada and Mexico, as well as many parts of the United States. These visitations have served to reinforce my belief that bowlers are the greatest people on earth.

The other major integers of our sport, AMF, the Bowling Proprietors Association of America, the Brunswick Corporation, the Professional Bowlers Assn., the WIBC and the YABA have given me outstanding support, for which I thank them.

I deeply appreciate the cooperation I have received from the ABC staff, particularly Roger Tessman and Burt Kellermann, and from all the members of the Board of Directors. All have done everything asked of them and more.

I thank my predecessor, Julian Johnson, and my successor, Bill DeHaven, for their counsel and advice.

To all these folks and to all of you, thank you for allowing me the high honor of serving as your President.

At this time we will have the report of the Executive Secretary-Teasurer and the Assistant Secretary-Treasurer of the Congress, report to be given by Roger Tessman.

TESSMAN: Thank you, Mr. President and good morning, gentlemen.

It's a pleasure to see you all here today and as you're aware the report presented by Burt Kellermann, our Assistant Executive Secretary, and myself is published in your book. We will not take the time to read that report today, but we certainly would encourage that you take the information back and share it with your local boards.

We feel the message is there. We feel it's a report form on what we have accomplished since we last met with you and we do hope that you will share it with your local folks.

This indeed is a fine opportunity for Burt and I to say a thank you to all of you, to our staff and to the officers of the Congress. You folks are the backbone of a wonderful organization and you do a tremendous job. You work at it early morning, late at night and we do feel a debt of gratitude to you and we do want to thank you most sincerely.

As has been said in other reports here this morning there is much in the industry that is very, very positive. We could well be on the threshold of one of the major periods in our history of expansion, development and interest.

The Olympic issue, the other programs that you're going to be seeing today, those that you have witnessed yesterday and certainly those that will be presented at the shop talk tomorrow.

All of these things interfaced give us an opportunity to do the job that needs to be done and certainly for each of us to leave the industry in a better position than that in which we found it.

We know that to accomplish this it requires cooperation and more importantly your efforts. We at the office work with you, and please remember, work for you. Our staff is dedicated. Burt is certainly a first class partner in my endeavor and to the staff and Burt, my thanks.

Also my thanks to you. Let's keep working at it and let's go forward from here. Thank you, gentlemen.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: The parliamentarian informs me that while we did dispense with the reading of the minutes we did not have a motion to accept them. Is there such a motion?

JULIAN JOHNSON, New Orleans: I move that we accept the minutes as published. Seconded by Ron Dailey, Nation's Capital Area Bowling Assn.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: It has been duly moved and seconded that the minutes be accepted as printed. All in favor signify by saying aye. Opposed signify by saving nay. By your action you have approved the minutes as published.

Next report will be the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum report.

Al Matzelle, the Executive Director of the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum, was scheduled in the program to give the report.

However, there is much work to be done in St. Louis in getting prepared for the June 1-2 opening of the museum and so to give the report will be the chairman of the ABC Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame Committee from St. Louis, Ed W. Sweeney Sr.

SWEENEY: You have our report in the book, but I just want to take a minute to give you an update. We will have the doors open at noon on June 2, 1984. We're progressing well with the interior exhibits and displays.

The four old-time bowling alleys and two new Brunswick lanes are installed and probably the two AMF lanes will be completed today.

Chris Schenkel will be the master of ceremonies for the day and many of the hall of famers from both the WIBC and ABC will be there and we hope that you will join us there also.

I have been asked a question about admission and so we will just tell you that admission is going to be $3 for an adult, $1.50 for youths under 14 and we will have a family rate of $5.

To commemorate this special date of our opening the Postal Service has granted the St. Louis Bowling Council its approval for issuance of a special postage cancellation. Those of you who are interested in receiving the special envelope, you may order through the Greater St. Louis B.A. You can see Don Rohman, the Secretary, or one of the other gentlemen in yellow coats and white caps.

To fill in on our financial status, may I introduce Lowell Rothschild.

ROTHSCHILD, Tucson, Ariz.: Many times those of us who are on the Board of Directors of the National Bowling Hall of Fame are asked the financial details in regard to the building and I think this is as good a time as any to share that with the delegates of our organization.

A group of national corporate organizations that owned property next to Busch Stadium, and through the good offices of then Mayor Conway of St. Louis and the Regional Growth and Convention Assn. arranged for us to receive the one-third acre that this magnificent building is on. That property in our judgment is valued at about $1 million.

When the building is completed and the exhibits are in, together with the materials that both the ABC and the WIBC have contributed, there will be an additional $7-1/2 million worth of value for a total of an $8-1/2 million edifice.

Well, the frank and simple story is we have raised $5-1/2 million of that money and we are $3 million short.

Now, it isn't that we're not going to open the building. It isn't that somebody is going to foreclose our mortgage, because I am sure you're aware that both the WIBC and the ABC have guaranteed the financing and the payment of that building.

We have a tremendous amount of confidence that debt obligation will be liquidated between voluntary contributions, corporate communities of the United States contributions and various fund raising.

A very interesting thing happened this week. Roger Tessman announced yesterday to the BWAA that the ABC Budget and Finance Committee had authorized the funds necessary to dedicate the magnificent library and research facility that is on the second level of the building in the name of Frank K. Baker, our Secretary Emeritus and we are pleased to announce that to all of you.

In that connection there has been an activity this week of support to the Frank K. Baker Tribute Fund and prior to the beginning of the convention and through the wonderful contributions of many of you there has been accumulated approximately $30,000.

Well, it's my privilege this morning to invite those of you who have not had an opportunity to give to the Frank K. Baker Fund an opportunity to declare your pledges and the funds that you would like to give so we can get on with the campaign as one of our activities.

(Numerous individuals, representing state or local bowling associations, other groups or themselves personally, came forward to pledge contributions to the Frank K. Baker Fund.)

ROTHSCHILD: Mr. Sweeney, where are we?

Through your great efforts, gentlemen, this morning we have doubled what we had. We have raised $35,000. Thank you very much.

I thought I might have forgotten you all, but it's a pleasure. You have given me the success. It is never me, it is all of you. Thank you very much.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: Thank you very much, Lowell, and there are two gentlemen I would like to introduce to stand and be recognized with us today relative to the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum.

Al Spanjer, the Hall of Fame Tournament coordinator, and Bill Selman, the coordinator of Sports Marketing for Anheuser-Busch in St. Louis. We wanted to recognize those two gentlemen.

Tomorrow morning, Anheuser-Busch and the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum will present certificates of accomplishment to the following local associations for their support of the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum — Aurora, Ill.; Charlotte, N.C.; Evansville, Ind.; Mesa, Ariz.; Orange County, Calif.; Greater Providence, R.I.; St. Charles, Mo., and Greater St. Louis.

Also these five state associations — Arizona, Iowa, Maryland, Missouri and New Hampshire.

In addition, three individuals from Mesa will be recognized tomorrow morning at the workshop.

The ABC Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow Award was instituted five years ago to annually honor an outstanding young man from the bowling community. Since this is awarded to only one from the thousands who bowl, it is to some degree symbolic but, for the most part, it recognizes an individual who stands out among his fellow young bowlers. It is, therefore, a rare honor.

To be considered, candidates must display superior bowling ability and potential, good sportsmanship, high scholastic achievement and a pleasing personality. The winner then is truly exceptional.

The 1984 Star of Tomorrow fills all of those requirements admirably.

I now ask YABA Executive Director Chuck Hall to escort the honoree this year to the podium and to assist me in presenting the award to him and to share our great pride and pleasure in introducing the 1984 Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow from Houston, Texas, Robert Beck.

Robert, it gives me a great deal of pleasure to present to you this clock and plaque. It says Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow 1984 award, Robert Beck, Channelview, Texas.

BECK: I would like to thank the American Bowling Congress and especially Chuck Hall for presenting this award to me in 1984 and I would like to thank my coach, Mike Herd, who nominated me for this award and for helping me with my game in my junior career. I would also like to thank the Houston bowling proprietors and coaches for having tournaments and events enabling me to achieve this award.

Most of all, I would like to thank my parents, who during my junior career have paid for, supported and encouraged me to strive for the best, win or lose. Thank you all very much.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: We now come to the report of the Young American Bowling Alliance that will be given by Chuck Hall.

HALL: I would like to tell you just maybe a couple of things about Robert because it illustrates some things that I want to say to you a little later on.

Robert is 18 and began bowling because a friend took him to a bowling center at the age of 12 and Robert said that he started open bowling and just never quit, but I want you to keep in mind that he went to a bowling center because some friend asked him to go to a bowling center.

His first year he averaged 100, but in three short years at the age of 15 he bowled his first 300 game. He set a city record in Houston with an 806 series, bowling games of 300 and 299 and a total of 25 series of 700 or better.

He currently carries a composite average of 204. He is a senior at Channelview High School, is a member of the National Honor Society and is listed in Who's Who among high school students.

He is looking forward to furthering his education as well as his bowling career and he is looking at West Texas State University, which has all of the things that he looks for, both educational as well as bowling.

Well, Mr. Bogle as your program says Chuck Hall is going to give you a YABA report, I am not going to talk about the past, because there is not a great deal that we can do about it.

I would just like to say to you, first of all, before I get into the basic remarks that I would like to make today, by saying that YABA is moving along well. We feel that we're over a great number of the hurdles that we saw in the unification, and we're pleased that hardly without exception in most areas in the country we have put the two programs together into one fine program and people are working together on behalf of the boys and girls who participate in the game of bowling.

You saw on the screen this morning during the National Bowling Council presentation the exciting activity that the NBC sponsors, the National Collegiate Bowling Championships. As was mentioned on the screen, the national finals this year will be held in San Jose, Calif. from May 4-6 and I give you the dates because if you're in that area, we want to invite you to attend the finals of the National Collegiate Bowling Championships. It is a very, very exciting event and if you're anywhere near that area don't miss it.

For the first time the Coca-Cola National Junior Bowling Championships will not be held in Washington, D.C. We are holding the 1984 finals in Minneapolis, Minn. and both in San Jose and in Minneapolis we have two excellent committees that are working diligently.

They have done a tremendous job on behalf of these two tournaments and the folks in the Minneapolis area and the Minnesota State Bowling Council have many great activities planned for the boys and girls who will be participating in the Coca-Cola National Junior Bowling Championships.

Again, we would like to publicly express our appreciation to the NBC for sponsorship of the collegiate championships and to the Coca-Cola USA Co. for sponsorship of the National Junior Bowling Championships.

While the overall status, as I mentioned a moment ago, of YABA is excellent, we certainly are intelligent enough to be cognizant of the problems we face with a young organization.

We are operating through an era of reduced population in the age group in which we work. We realize when recreation dollars become lesser it is usually the kids that suffer the first consequence.

We also feel because YABA is a new organization, it is a new name, that we have lost to some degree some of the fervor, the dedicated fervor that we had with the former two youth bowling associations.

We see some of the attitude that now that YABA is a separate organization, a bit of the attitude that says, well, they are a separate organization, why should we be concerned. Let them to their own thing.

These factors, I feel, are reflected again this year when we have to report to you that the membership in YABA, the number of youth players that are playing our game in sanctioned competition, is again at a reduced level.

Someone told me the other day that the only difference between a rut and a grave is that the rut just doesn't have any ends.

Gentlemen, I think the time is now and it has been alluded to in a number of references here this morning by Mr. Wells, by Mrs. Baker and by others that the time is now when everyone in this game must make up their mind to get out of the rut of declining youth bowling membership.

The time is now for all integers of the bowling family and every individual member of ABC, BPAA, WIBC, YABA, et cetera, to rise up in total and rise up in dedicated support of youth bowling in the YABA.

Young bowlers we bring into our game and those that we indoctrinate into our game, like this young man that you saw here just a moment ago, are the future of our game. They are the future of ABC. They are the future of your associations.

They are the future of WIBC. They are the future of WIBC associations and certainly they are the future of the entire bowling industry and of the bowling sport as we know it.

If we're to get out of the rut of declining youth bowling membership that we have been running along in for the past few years we need the total support and assistance of every person in this auditorium and every one of your counterparts across this great country.

We call upon you to give your wholehearted support and the support of your associations to make youth bowling and collegiate bowling a viable experience for young people. As was said this morning an experience that they enjoy and that is the "in thing" in the community and everybody wants to be a part of it.

We ask you to go back to your associations and for you men to take the initiative to call a meeting of representatives of your association, the women's association, all the proprietors, the YABA association and sit down and truly analyze what is the youth bowling membership situation in your own community and then sit down together and objectively analyze the bowling scene and then very objectively institute a program that you will develop, promote and improve youth bowling in every center in your association area.

After 25 years in this game come the middle of May, I know there is no objective or no challenge which we cannot reach. There is no barrier that we cannot overcome if we simply set our minds to it. If we make up our minds to do it, we will do it.

Let's make up our minds, gentlemen, to turn around the youth bowling membership not only for the good of the kids today, but for the future of our game and of ABC.

Let's make up our minds to do it before suddenly we may find the rut has truly become a grave of the game of bowling.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: We will now have a summary of all committee reports by Assistant Secretary-Treasurer of the Congress, Burt Kellermann.

KELLERMANN: Once again it is my pleasure to present the summary of the committee reports. The committee reports are published and furnished to you in your convention workbooks. We would urge you to read them, study them and share them with the members of your local boards when you do return home. The information in the report is informative and interesting and should be shared with all people interested in bowling.

The Awards Study Committee has submitted a proposal for your consideration today to expand the ABC awards program with an all-spare chevron to be offered in the 1984-85 season. It was felt the savings which resulted from allowing one 700 chevron per season should be given back to the bowlers in the form of a new award that can be obtained by all bowlers.

The committee approved programs to recognize local and state Hall of Fame inductees and each local association's director of the year. Staff is working on developing certificates of recognition for those programs which will begin in the 1984-85 season.

A membership emblem has been created and a sample has been furnished to all delegates. The emblem is a tool to publicize the American Bowling Congress and will be discussed further at the Saturday workshop.

We have developed a new ABC logo and incorporated that logo into an attractive letterhead for ABC stationery.

While we did not wish to make a drastic change, there was a need for our logo to reflect our sport. Therefore, the bowling ball and bowling pin have been added and we feel that would give bowling recognition. This logo will be phased in with all the new printings that we will be making during the coming months.

You already have heard about the grand opening for the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum and obviously your continued support for the Hall of Fame and Museum is very much appreciated.

The Education Committee has been busy with many projects that you will be seeing in the field next season. Two items were distributed to you this week, the Secretary's handbook and the President's handbook, and we believe they will be important tools to help our bowlers operate their leagues efficiently.

The Tenpin Puzzlers will be sent to team captains next season and should eliminate many disputes by the bowlers having a better understanding of our basic rules. You were shown a rough draft of the Tenpin Puzzlers last year and your comments helped create what we feel is an excellent information tool.

The 32 page Secretary's handbook is a comprehensive explanation of all areas of the league operation, including sanction materials and award applications. And the President's handbook has 16 pages covering the duties and responsibilities of the league president, with a major emphasis on the bonding program.

More than 12,000 updated operations manuals were distributed during the 1983-84 season to you and they were distributed at no charge, and more than 3,000 additional were purchased by local associations for their board members. For those of you who have not purchased the manuals for your board, the price is $2.50 per book and you would receive one free book with the purchase of five.

An Officers and Directors handbook was distributed to the ABC Board members here this week. We feel this is an important tool toward providing another needed service for our members.

The first winners were announced Wednesday in the expanded BOWLING magazine national writing competition for stories about local association operations, people and programs. First place was awarded to a Beaver Dam, Wis. writer and there were approximately 50 entries. That isn't bad considering the competition was not announced until last October. We expect to interest many writers in entering stories about hard-working association members for this year's competition.

Tomorrow morning at the workshop we will be announcing the winners on the annual Service Award for local associations. For those that did not win this year, a letter has been mailed to the associations pointing out the areas where improvement could result in receiving the award next year.

We have attached in the 1982-83 audit report, a comparative balance sheet and a summarized comparative operating statement which includes the 1983-84 budget in your convention booklets to keep you abreast of the financial status of the Congress, in accordance with the wishes of the Finance and Budget Committee. Four subcommittees were established this season, investments, personnel, audit and special programs, and they have been extremely helpful in factoring out the best way to make our membership income work for you.

We have a new auditing firm, Arthur Andersen and Co. Because of a major difference in format between the former auditor and the new firm, comparative financial data cannot be presented. Next year, however, that will be possible. Also next year there will be chart explanations detailing the distribution of funds.

The investment subcommittee established criteria in priority order for investments. They are, first, safety, second, liquidity, and third, yield.

The special program subcommittee evaluates proposals including those related to travel which could materially reduce travel costs by staff and directors. Policies related to directors and officers have been published in the Officer and Director handbook.

Even though the rate of increase for inflation has stabilized, costs of operations are continuing upward. However, executive staff continues to implement cost containment programs, and an effective monitoring procedure has been developed to assure increased cost-effectiveness of services to our customers.

The Field Service staff is budgeted for nine employes for the 1983-84 season, an increase of two from the previous season. These additions will help immensely in providing information, education and public relation services to local associations.

There was $1.8 million of income in excess of expenses for the year ending July 31, 1983. This net exceeded budget because some expected expenditures, such as appointment of group executives, was delayed and some capital expenditures were postponed. Income was very close to the budgeted figure of $8.3 million, but cost containment efforts resulted in expenses being $1.2 million under budget. All departments are constantly reviewed for cost saving measures. For the first time in recent history, awards were under budget, primarily due to a change in suppliers. We all should be aware that in the 1983-84 season many of these savings will not be possible because of staffing and equipment needs. Professional service expenses were over budget for the 1982-83 season. While much of this over budget variance results from litigation to protect the integrity of the game, some relates to efforts to prevent or minimize potential problems.

Reserves which for several years were either underfunded or non-existent have been reestablished so there is a continuity of long range programs. However, there still are areas where reserves should be established, such as a funded reserve for replacing tournament equipment.

The comparative operating statement reflects the additional membership income from the dues increase in the 1982-83 season. That decision by the delegates has provided opportunity for upgrading member services such as the field staff expansion. And we have hired the final two group executives, that of Technical and Field Services.

WIBC has agreed to share the operational expenses of the Lane Certification Department as of Aug. 1, 1984. Exploration continues on WIBC becoming a partner in the Testing Facility and the High Score Processing departments.

The last two ABC tournaments have shown surpluses and we expect another in Reno. However, the tournament fund still is in a deficit position of approximately $350,000 which is due the general fund for purchase of the tournament scoring system. Additionally, reserves of not less than $1 million must be established for replacement of equipment.

As of Jan. 31, gentlemen, the ABC financial statements are within the budgetary projections.

The Future ABC Tournament Site Study Committee authorized a survey by Belden Associates of Dallas to prepare a questionnaire which was mailed to 1,600 team captains who bowled in Niagara Falls. 1,002 captains returned the survey, which is considered an excellent gauge to gather a valid consensus of opinion. Belden mailed each captain who replied a summary of the survey.

The survey was conducted because of an offer by Reno to host the tournament on an every year or every other year basis with the event conducted in a special building which would be built for the tournament by the Reno group. The survey indicated that bowlers, at best, would be agreeable to returning to a city within a three year period and were willing to pay additional entry fees to allow ABC the opportunity to continue moving the tournament from city to city.

There was a 10 percent increase in cases last season, according to the High Score and Awards Review Committee. The two primary causes for high score denial continue to be non-complying lane conditions and the late submission of league sanction applications. Almost one-third of the cases considered this season contained scores bowled in leagues which had a negligent secretary, one who procrastinated or did not seek help. The statistics point out the need for each association to develop a system of followup in contacting leagues prior to the expiration of the grace period to significantly decrease those numbers. You can refer to Chapter 7 in that very helpful Local Association Operations Manual for very valuable suggestions toward developing such a system.

ABC members bowled in international competition in Mexico City, Miami and twice in Venezuela in 1983 with Tony Cariello of Chicago the most successful. Cariello emerged in Caracas as FIQ World champion, the lone gold medal performance for the U.S. men and women in the 10th championships. Cariello and Rich Wonders and Darold Meisel of Wisconsin won a bronze in the trios. The five player unit, which included the trio winners, Gordon Vadakin of Wichita and Rod Toft of St. Paul, finished second.

Wonders and Toft placed second in the Pan American Games doubles event. It was the first time that bowling had been a part of the Pan Am games, this time as demonstration sport. The U.S. team earned the trophy for compiling the most points in the overall competition, thanks largely to Jean Hammond of the U.S., who won the individual title, and Wonders, who was the top qualifier but finished second.

Detroiters Tony Loiacano and Rick McCardy finished third in doubles in the Tournament of the Americas in Miami. Collegiate bowler Mike Jasnau of Wichita State gave the United States a third place finish in the men's competition at the AMF World Cup in Mexico City.

ABC and WIBC are continuing their efforts to have bowling become a medal sport in future Pan Am games and we'll be involved in the 1985 World Games II in London. The next FIQ will be an American Zone event in Colombia in 1985, and the next FIQ World will be in Helsinki, Finland in 1987. We plan to make a bid to host the 1989 Zone competition and the 1995 FIQ World Tournament, which will coincide with ABC's centennial celebration.

ABC Secretary Emeritus Frank K. Baker stepped down after six years as FIQ President during the meetings in Venezuela in October. We already had a report by Mr. Tessman becoming the acting president of the FIQ.

The Lane Inspection Procedure Committee reports that five Train the Trainer sessions have been conducted at Bowling Headquarters, resulting in more than 50 qualified instructors to deliver the 2-1/2 day Certified Lane Inspector Workshops in the field.

Last year the Legal and Legislative Committee withdrew two proposals dealing with Article 7 of the ABC Constitution in order to submit a single comprehensive proposal. This year's proposal No. 10 establishes the procedures for application and retention of an ABC Regulation Bowling Lane Certificate as well as defining a proprietor's responsibility to maintain certifiable conditions throughout the life of the certificate. Should a non-complying condition exist, the proposal sets forth the procedural steps which are to be observed, including notification to ABC members. The committee also proposed an addition to Rule 114 which, if adopted, will establish specific procedures a league must observe when a bowler is dismissed for causes other than non-payment of league fees and/or improper withdrawal.

23 amendments were reviewed by the Legislative Study Committee. In keeping with the responsibilities of the committee, five proposals were passed along for consideration and the rest were returned to proposers who were advised of the reasons for such return and of their right to resubmit the proposal. A synopsis of each returned proposal and the reason for returning it to the proposer is included in the printed report.

In complying with the delegates' wishes expressed at the 1983 Convention, the Olympic Committee made a detailed study of United States Olympic Committee Constitution and Bylaws, visited USOC headquarters in Colorado Springs and had consultation with a USOC Membership Committee representative. A formal application for membership in USOC has been filed with copies of all the required exhibits of ABC's organizational structure and information about its virtual 90 years of service to bowling. We will be meeting with USOC April 6 and we hope to have a favorable decision later that month to include bowling as a member of the USOC. There are eight proposals before you today that have a major bearing on our acceptance.

The Planning Committee has been creating and developing programs to keep ABC aware of future trends. Spreading ABC's message to the grass roots level is a goal which must be reached. Many of our members relate only to the visible aspects of the ABC services, unaware of the entire ABC program. Several programs that have been given top priority are: Capturing our entire membership on computer so ABC can reach all its members; attaching a maximum of three value coupons to the ABC membership card; a local association liability insurance program, and the training of individuals to fill vacancies as association secretaries. The latter deals with the Education Committee as well, and subcommittees from these two committees will work together on that program.

The Rules Committee submitted three proposed rule changes for today's session. The first clarifies ABC's present policy that absentee or vacancy scores may not be substituted for games bowled for an ineligible player. Two changes deal with the operation of sanctioned tournaments. The proposals amend Rules 343 and 344 by removing some restrictions presently imposed with regard to the amount which may be charged for an all events contest and the number of special features a tournament may conduct. A meeting with several tournament managers from around the country was held last season and these proposals are a result of that meeting, with the intent to increase participation.

The committee met with the WIBC Legislative Committee to discuss the recognition of summer league averages. Recognition of YABA averages also is being considered. Our staffs will meet to formulate solutions to these subjects. The Rules Committee anticipates a proposal concerning these matters next year.

The Senior Competition Committee has established immediate goals to design attractive programs to encourage senior competition to be sanctioned on a widespread basis. ABC will be providing championship chevrons starting with the 1984-85 season for the winners of local senior tournaments. This is in addition to the current chevron program for the state and provincial championships. The 25th annual ABC

Seniors Championships tournament will be held in Reno in May, and we anticipate 135 men competing from 44 states and provinces. We have worked with local and state associations to inaugurate programs and have been most happy that 44 states and provinces and more than 200 local associations presently are conducting senior championship tournaments.

In the area of ongoing tests, the New Equipment Committee and staff are involved in official score tests for two types of wood core plastic coated pins and two totally synthetic pins. They are testing five synthetic lane configurations, a synthetic kickback plate material and a synthetic pin deck edge board. One synthetic pin test was discontinued because of the pin's failure to meet the established scoring parameters.

The intense competition between bowling ball manufacturers has resulted in many changes in the composition of bowling balls in recent years. This has caused many of our bowlers to question as to whether or not our current specifications are adequate. The challenge was given to our Testing and Research staff to come up with a method to measure the bowling ball surface characteristics that control the tracking of the ball along the lane. They call that the coefficient of friction. By working with an outside engineering firm, the Testing and Research staff developed an instrument that can give repeatable measurements of the dynamic coefficient of friction. We have a film strip that will show you their progress to date.

Developing the device is only the first step; now we must obtain data on several variations of bowling ball surfaces including a newly manufactured bowling ball, also determine the effects that sanding a bowling ball would have on the surface friction and also testing friction for bowling balls that would be showing characteristics of normal wear due to bowling activity. The bowling balls of all manufacturers will be tested. From this data we will try to develop the additional specifications that may be needed. We will also be working on relating these characteristics to scoring. Progress reports will be given to you as significant new data is available.

A second film clip has been prepared to show the progress on the development of the lane dressing device; many of you had the opportunity to examine it yesterday during the seminars.

That film clip is very positive. In fact, it might lead you to say "Where can I buy one?" Or, "When can I start using it to check award scores?"

To provide you with some perspective as to where we stand we will review the strategy and plan, including the key dates.

From our limited field usage we have verified that the system including the lane conditioner additive is usable and presents no problems from either the lane maintenance or customer standpoint.

Our device, while looking like a commercially packaged one in the film clip, is only a laboratory device. We must ensure that it performs satisfactorily under all field conditions. It has to work after being bounced around in the trunk of the inspector's car and it can't take two hours to warm up after being stored in the trunk of a car in -10 degree temperature. To accomplish this will take detailed equipment specifications and an acceptance test to make sure that the devices are qualified.

Further field tests must be performed with units that are like the actual units used. These tests will tell us how reliable the equipment will be, how repeatable the measurements are, what problems do inspectors have using the device as well as the basic information that will be needed to develop the legislative standards that must define the tolerance or limits on the readings.

Just as we have opened the communications channels with our members with these presentations this week, so we must also involve the other members of the bowling family. Not only must we provide them with information on how the device works and what is required of their groups to implement it, but we must also solicit feedback from them as to the particular problems they could envision the device may present to them. Other questions like how will local associations obtain these devices must be answered. This will require that we develop a distribution plan.

We project that the package could be ready for delegate action at our 1985 Convention in Tulsa. If we are correct and this does happen, then the third part of the plan comes into being. We would authorize suppliers to start building the devices and have them available by January 1986. Then we could expect to implement the lane dressing device in our awards score inspections and make it effective for the 1986-87 bowling season.

At the workshop tomorrow morning we will try to answer any questions you may have regarding that device and with the length of the summary I think we should all be grateful that you didn't have to listen to the reports in their entirety. I am certainly grateful for that. I again would urge you to read the information, take it back to your associations and share it with them.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: We have completed the various reports. The chair now will recognize Albert Spencer of the Central Connecticut B.A.

SPENCER: I move we accept the reports and make them a part of the report of this meeting. Seconded by William Feeney, Salt Lake City.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: You have heard the motion to accept the committee reports. Is there any discussion? All in favor of the motion say aye. Those opposed say nay. By your action you have approved the committee reports.

We now will have the report of the Nominating Committee by Chairman Julian O. Johnson of New Orleans.

JOHNSON: This year we have five openings on the American Bowling Congress Board of Directors in addition to selecting a new President and 10th Vice President.

The Nominating Committee interviewed 37 for the vacant Board of Directors chairs, and on behalf of that committee I would like to make the following report.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: Before we ask for nominations from the floor, if there are any, all nominees must be in opposition to a candidate on the ballot. In a case of a jurisdictional director, he must be from the area being served by the nominee on the printed ballot.

Are there any nominations from the floor for any office? Hearing none, and if you have no objection, I will declare the nominations closed.

We will now have the voting procedure explained by Roger Tessman.

TESSMAN: Gentlemen, ballots will be given to you by the staff as you leave the convention hall. The ballot boxes will open and will close at 2:30, therefore, giving you adequate time to cast your ballot.

When you receive the ballot it will be appropriate to just review this information, that to cast the ballot, since there are no nominees from the floor, all you need do is mark an X in the circle provided at the top of the ballot.

Please read the simple instructions and then cast your ballot accordingly. If there is any question you can contact one of staff.

I would also like to make this word of caution. You have the yellow tag. That is your identity as a delegate. Please do not destroy that tag until today's activities are concluded and the convention is adjourned. It is your voting stub, so to speak.

When you cast your ballot it will be punched, but it also will be necessary thereafter to identify you as a voting delegate.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: Gentlemen, we are about to take the luncheon break. Any of you wishing to make pledges to the Frank K. Baker Living Memorial may give them to Lowell Rothschild, Ed Sweeney, Roger Tessman or myself. Gentlemen, we will reconvene at 1:30. We stand in recess.

(The lunch recess was taken.)

AFTERNOON SESSION

PRESIDENT BOGLE: Gentlemen, we are back in session. I want to remind the delegates that in order for your votes to be valid on the amendments, on the resolutions you must be seated in sections one to nine in the lower section and three through seven in the upper section. So if you are a delegate and you're not in one of those sections please get into one where your vote will be valid.

I call now on Director Clifford R. Munson from Miami for an expression of appreciation.

MUNSON: You need go no farther than a look at the entry list for the 1984 American Bowling Congress Tournament to see how our bowlers have responded to the city of Reno. With a record number of 8,380, there's no doubt Reno and bowling were made for each other. The 1977 ABC Tournament proved to be a hit here, and the 1984 event is well on its way to equaling or surpassing that success.

There's ample evidence around the city that Reno welcomes the ABC bowlers, and the officers, staff and delegates attending this convention appreciate that reception. It's also evident the Reno-Sparks Convention Authority, the Reno-Sparks Bowling Assn. and city officials have put in extra effort to insure a smooth running tournament. In turn, the community has benefited from the thousands of dollars spent by bowlers during their stay. Part of that contribution has come at the many games of chance present everywhere in this city, although we're happy to report at least a few bowlers have experienced the joy of hitting a big jackpot.

The tournament continues for two more months, but there already are several outstanding scores at the top of the leader boards, and we thank the media for their part in recognizing the bowlers' achievements. Hopefully the media spotlight will remain on bowling, for this city is an active supporter of the sport by hosting other major tournaments.

It's impossible to list all the individuals who've given their time and effort to boost this tournament, but we'd like to offer a pat on the back to Jay Milligan, executive director of the Convention Authority, and the man who retired from that position but has continued to assist the ABC, Bill Harrison. Also, thanks go to Reno-Sparks Assn. President Angelo Monticelli and Secretary Jess Bales, the other officers and directors of the association and Reno Mayor Pete Sferrazza.

On behalf of all our bowlers, officers and delegates it is my privilege to say thank you, Reno, Nev., for everything during the 1984 American Bowling Congress Tournament and Convention. We hope we can return for a third time to your fine city.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: Gentlemen, when you came to the convention this year you knew that the 1985 Tournament would be in Tulsa and the 1986 in Las Vegas and it's my pleasure to announce now that the 1987 Tournament has been awarded by the Site Selection Committee to Niagara Falls, New York.

The ballot boxes will remain open until 2:30 p.m. If you haven't cast your ballot we would urge you to do that at this time. After 2:30 no more ballots can be accepted and there will be no further announcements relative to closing of ballot boxes.

We now are ready for the legislative session. It will be conducted by Jack A. Otero of Santa Barbara, Calif. and our parliamentarian Dr. Edward Leone of Milwaukee.

OTERO: Thank you, President Bogle, officers, directors, delegates and guests of the American Bowling Congress.

I would first like to make this comment that you have been introduced to Dr. Leone and you may wonder from time to time why I am not talking to him about various rulings, but during the week we have gone over the legislation. We have discussed what possible motions might come up, what possible rulings might have to be made and hopefully we have done our homework and we can move smoothly without having you wait while we discuss it here at the podium. The rules of procedure that we will follow have been the ones that have been historically followed.

The first item is amendments 1 through 8 and with your permission I would like to take these all as one package and let me give you some legislative history.

For those who were here this morning, you heard Helen Baker and you heard our own people explain how we have attempted to make whatever changes are necessary in order to qualify for United States Olympic Committee membership. I only want to add that this is not just simply the USOC requirements. In 1978, federal legislation was enacted called the Amateur Sports Act and in that legislation they set forth requirements in order to get representation.

So, we first had to meet those requirements, which I might add are almost identical to the USOC requirements.

The recommendation by the Board of Directors is for adoption of amendments 1 through 8.

Is there any discussion? I see none. All in favor of the adoption of amendments 1 through 8 signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have adopted amendments 1 through 8.

Now, to vary a little from our procedure you will find in your book at the back, a resolution. This resolution is to allow the Board of Directors to change or to make changes in the bylaws if during the April 5 meeting with the U.S. Olympic Committee membership or the delegates meeting there happens to be an "I" that wasn't dotted or a "T" that wasn't crossed we won't have to wait another year.

We would be asking you to adopt this resolution, which would be effective until the next convention in 1985 and I will read that resolution to you.

It says, Whereas, the American Bowling Congress has an application pending for membership in the United States Olympic Committee (USOC), and

Whereas, it may still become necessary to make additional changes in the eligibility regulations for its projected Amateur Championships Tournament to qualify for USOC membership, and

Whereas, there is the need to continue the pursuit of USOC membership as promptly as possible,

Be it resolved, by the delegates in annual session on March 23, 1984, that if during the 1983-84 or the 1984-85 season additional revisions become necessary to obtain USOC membership, the ABC Board of Directors shall be authorized to achieve these revisions by amending the applicable provisions of the ABC Constitution.

If such revisions become necessary to obtain USOC membership, such revisions shall be put in force immediately.

Be it further resolved, that any such revisions approved by the board shall be submitted to the delegates at the 1985 Convention for ratification by the body.

This resolution will require a two-thirds vote.

Is there any discussion with regard to this resolution? There appearing to be none, all in favor signify by saying aye. Opposed no.

Now, with regard to both the amendments 1 through 8 and the resolution, we are requesting that they be made effective immediately and with regard to that is there any discussion?

All in favor signify by saying aye. Opposed no.

By your action you have adopted the resolution and made both the resolution and amendments 1 through 8 effective immediately.

Turning to page 11, this amendment which is number 9 will identify line officers by procedure for filling vacancies of offices, jurisdictional directors and change the date of the office of the officers and directors to take office following their election from August 1 to May 1.

The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for approval. So the matter before you is for approval of proposed amendment 9.

Is there any discussion on proposed amendment 9? There appearing to be none all in favor of the adoption of proposed amendment 9 signify by saying aye. Opposed no.

By your action you have adopted proposed amendment 9.

Turning to page 14, this is proposed amendment 10 and it will redefine the obligation of bowling proprietors regarding application for and retention of the ABC Regulation Bowling Lane Certificate. It will establish direction regarding action taken in the event of violation of Article 7.

The matter before you is a recommendation of the Board of Directors for adoption.

Is there any discussion with regard to proposed amendment 10?

BOYD PEXTON, Salt Lake City, chairman of the Legal Committee: The delegates who were present at Niagara Falls will remember that the Legal Committee proposed two amendments to Article 7 last year. The reports that we received indicated that many delegates would have liked to see those two amendments passed.

However, at its Niagara Falls committee meeting just prior to the convention, the Legal Committee decided that those two amendments were incomplete and we, therefore, withdrew those amendments.

We promised more comprehensive legislation this year. We have attempted to completely rewrite Article 7 of the ABC Constitution. We worked on it at every Legal Committee meeting during the year. We even had a subcommittee of Ben Palumbo and Jerry Koenig work on it for many additional hours. The result is what you see before you. We think it is now the comprehensive legislation that was promised. We think it's workable. We think it's fair. We urge your support.

OTERO: Is there anyone that wishes to speak in opposition to the motion?

DON GATES, Syracuse, N.Y.: I see many problems with this amendment, but I am not going to dwell on all of the problems.

I will just ask one clarification on one area that I think we'll have some problems with. That is under Section 7, Miscellaneous, where it says in the event the certificate of any establishment is temporarily suspended or withdrawn, a bowler can withdraw and to do so is satisfactory reason for the purposes of 114a.

I will state a hypothetical situation, which probably is correct far more than hypothetical, because it is not all that difficult to get into an area of having three suspensions of a score. In fact, I can give an example of just recently where a proprietor that I know of has been trying to get a good lane condition in the Buffalo area and Rochester and Syracuse and has invited the local association to come in and help them with lane conditioning procedures and invited the local association to come in at any time and check the lanes. They had an acceptable procedure.

They had a score approved and then in rapid succession had two scores disapproved, which gives them one away of being in the area where they might lose their certificate.

Let's take an example, a center that loses its certificate temporarily, and we're playing hardball on this issue, and the association perhaps encourages the members of leagues and leagues themselves to withdraw from the proprietor's center and many of them do. Maybe individuals quit the teams, maybe leagues withdraw altogether and the proprietor sees the folly of his way and applies for recertification, and say three weeks later, is recertified.

Now, what happens if the leagues decide that they don't want to go back in and bowl or the individual decides he doesn't want to go back in and bowl. Is he now duty bound to go back and complete the season? Does he have to complete, say, the two or three weeks that he missed? Does he have to go back at all? That is just one question.

OTERO: Well, the answer to that question probably would await what some courts will determine, but, Mr. Gates, I will assume that is speaking in opposition to the motion to approve.

Is there anyone that wishes to discuss in support of the motion?

JERRY KOENIG, Shawano, Wis.: On behalf of the Legal Committee I believe there is no specific answer to the gentlemen's question, but from the Legal Committee's viewpoint we would point out that it is our understanding that the ABC position in this type of matter has constantly or continually been that the contract has been with the proprietor and the league and is a matter between the proprietor and the league.

It seems that there would have been a change in the contract between the proprietor and the league, but we believe that is something that would be outside of the specific legislation.

OTERO: I think I am in the position to ask if there is any further discussion? Seeing none, the motion that you have before you or what you have before you is the adoption of proposed amendment 10 as amended and you have a copy of the amendments.

All in favor of that motion signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have adopted proposed amendment 10.

Proposed amendment 11 appears on page 19 of your booklet. It says following a rerate, require that only winter league averages be used to determine if a bowler must use his rerated average or his league average for entry into subsequent handicapped or classified competition.

The matter before you is the recommendation of the Board of Directors which recommends that this matter be deferred until the next annual meeting of the Congress to allow time for further study.

Is there any discussion with respect to that matter? There appears to be none. So the matter before you is the recommendation for deferral until the next convention.

All in favor of that motion signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action proposed amendment 11 has been deferred for one year for further study.

Proposed amendment 12 is on page 20 of your book and that would require that association average listings indicate R for right handed and L for left handed averages. Also, require that a bowler entering local or state association tournaments inform tournament management which hand the entering average was established and that all deliveries in that tournament be made with that hand.

The matter before you is the recommendation of the Board of Directors which is a recommendation for rejection. Is there any discussion with regard to that matter?

There appearing to be none, the motion is a rejection of proposed amendment 12.

All in favor of that motion signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have rejected proposed amendment 12.

Proposed amendment 13 would establish one point for gutter depth measurement opposite the center of the rear row of pin spots.

The recommendation by the Board of Directors is for adoption of proposed amendment 13. Is there any discussion with regard to this amendment?

There appears to be none. All in favor of proposed amendment 13 signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have adopted proposed amendment 13.

Proposed amendment 14 is on page 22. This would require the manufacturer of approved synthetic lane surfaces to label each panel with a product identification code assigned by ABC.

The matter before you is a recommendation of approval by the Board of Directors. Is there any discussion with respect to proposed amendment 14? There being none, the matter before you is a recommendation for adoption of proposed amendment 14.

All in favor signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have adopted proposed amendment 14.

Proposed amendment 15 was withdrawn and, therefore, is not before you, but for your information this amendment was proposed by the New Equipment Committee in response to a request by the WIBC to do further testing with regard to heavier weight pins with bowlers bowling lighter balls — women, seniors and juniors. At the March meeting of the New Equipment Committee the testing at that point indicated there was no substantial difference. The WIBC withdrew its request for further testing.

Therefore, there was no need for proposed amendment 15, which was to delay the implementation of your action of last year from 1985 to 1986.

Going to proposed amendment 16, which is on page 25, the originally proposed amendment was to make the synthetic pins the same weight as the non-synthetic pins. It was going to be effective in 1986. To be consistent with what happened on proposed amendment 15 that was amended to make it effective at the same time, which would be 1985.

So what you would be voting on would be the recommendation of the Board of Directors for approval of proposed amendment 16 as amended, which would make the effective date Aug. 1, 1985. Is there any discussion with respect to proposed amendment 16?

There appearing not to be, all in favor of the adoption of proposed amendment 16 signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have adopted proposed amendment 16.

Proposed amendment 17 is on page 28 and this would specify awards which are to be issued in ABC championship tournaments.

The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption. Is there any discussion with respect to proposed amendment 17?

There appearing not to be, all in favor signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have adopted proposed amendment 17.

Proposed amendment 18 would allow a bowler to receive one 700 series award in each league in which he participates.

The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for rejection. Is there any discussion with respect to proposed amendment 18?

RICHARD SMITH, McHenry County (Ill.) B.A.: I have been requested by Mr. (Milfred) Seifrit, the proposer of proposed amendment 18, to speak in favor of this motion.

It seems that somewhere along the line we have forgotten just how difficult it is to bowl a 700 series and this is one of the places where the average bowler has his difficulty and certainly it seems to me that if he bowls it in different leagues he should be entitled to that patch.

Now, being on the committee that checks high score awards in our association, we find out that even when a man shoots a 300 game most of the time he will not shoot 700 and it seems this should be the thing. Now, in every sport, no matter what it is, we have something that seems to many, many participants to be awful easy. A fellow can hit home runs and make touchdown runs and throw passes. It's easy for these 190, 220 bowlers to shoot that 700, but there are hundreds of thousands of men that shoot 160, 170 and they might get lucky sometime and shoot two and then have to be in a different league to get the patch. Milfred would like for the delegates here to give this some serious thought before they cast their vote to agree to the proposal by the ABC.

OTERO: Is there anyone wishing to speak in favor of the motion for rejection?

DIRK WHEAT, Waterloo, Iowa, ABC director on the Rules Committee: We feel that presently additional chevrons can be purchased for display on the shirt, plus the proposal does not address tournament competition. Third, there is an administrative problem in determining whether or not it is the bowler's first 700 in that league. Fourth, savings from the 700 awards have been allocated to the all-spare award and that would create budgetary problems.

OTERO: Any further discussion on proposed amendment 18?

The matter before you which requires only a majority vote is a recommendation of the Board of Directors for rejection.

All in favor of rejection signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have rejected proposed amendment 18.

On page 28 is the proposed amendment 19 and that would establish a new award for an all-spare game and the recommendation by the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion with regard to proposed amendment 19?

There appears to be none and this would require two-thirds vote. I am sorry, is there somebody there?

BOB MARTIN, San Antonio (Texas) B.A.: As over the past several years ABC has instructed us to come up with local association awards and award programs. If ABC takes on this all-spare I am sure they are going to find, particularly in most of the larger associations, that the all-spare award is already being provided by that local association. Therefore, our association in San Antonio would like to express its vote to reject this rather than approve it. Also, in regards to the motion that we have just passed I see no limitations to whether we will get one all-spare game per year or award.

TED MELONIS, Omaha, Neb., member of the Awards Committee: In regards to the gentleman's question about associations that currently have first 600 awards or all-spare games, et cetera, we also have the same program in our association and we feel if this is adopted we'll adopt another award on the local level for our bowlers in our area. We move that the proposal be adopted.

JIM CAIN, Colorado Springs B.A.: The original reason for not passing, for wanting to cut down on the 700 awards was cost. If you want to increase the cost to make this all-spare award.

OTERO: Any further discussion? What you have before you is a recommendation by the Board of Directors for adoption of proposed amendment 19. This will require two-thirds vote.

All in favor signify by saying aye. Opposed no. We will try the next time, for all of those who are in favor please stand up. You may be seated. All of those opposed to proposed amendment 19 please stand up.

By your action you have adopted proposed amendment 19.

Proposed amendment 20. This would reduce the number of eligible players needed to form a legal lineup in a three man league from two to one when the league rules allow only three players per team.

The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for rejection. Is there any discussion on proposed amendment 20?

DICK YODER, Greater Phoenix B.A., the proposer of this amendment: I would like to clarify my feelings on this motion. First off, it is a league option at the beginning of the season prior to the schedule starting that a league may by rule adopt such a rule that one bowler would be the legal lineup. The purpose, I feel, a team wouldn't have to forfeit in case a situation should come up in work schedule changes, people needing to be out of town, like two brothers bowling on the same team would need to be out of town for a particular reason.

It could be spelled out as an emergency clause. I don't feel that this would create absenteeism to any degree and I think it would be a benefit especially to the leagues that bowl at odd times as most leagues are. They're bowled at odd times, early in the morning, late at night. Many senior leagues are scheduled at that time and I think the proposal has merit and I would like to see it adopted as presented.

GEORGE ZEIDELL, San Diego, a member of the Rules Committee: The Rules Committee wishes to express that we sympathize with the proposer's problem, but he is attempting to resolve his problem on the national level instead of attempting to resolve it with other possible solutions, such as converting the league to a doubles or a singles league, allowing roving subs, encourage those that do sign up to fulfill their obligations, if not to the league at least to their fellow team members.

ABC has traditionally held to the philosophy that at least 50% of a team must be present for a legal lineup. Allowing this option could encourage efforts to obtain eligible players for the competition. It is also felt that it would encourage absenteeism since one bowler would constitute a legal lineup.

It could lead to future legislation to reduce playing strength for four or five man competition and, lastly, this is only applicable to leagues where there are no roster limitations to three players.

OTERO: Is there any further discussion?

There appearing to be none, the matter before you is a motion to reject proposed amendment 20, which requires only a majority vote.

All in favor or rejection signify by saying aye. Those opposed no. By your action you have rejected proposed amendment 20.

Proposed amendment 21 is on page 30 of your book and it would clarify the present rule that absentee and vacancy scores may not be substituted for games bowled by an ineligible bowler.

The recommendation of the Board of Directors is adoption of proposed amendment 21. Is there any discussion with respect to this amendment? There appearing to be none, this will require a two-thirds vote.

All in favor of the adoption of proposed amendment 21 signify by saying aye. Those opposed no. By your action you have adopted proposed amendment 21.

Proposed amendment 22 on page 31 in your book would require that games bowled by more than one individual count for team score only.

The recommendation of the Board of Directors was to defer for one year, that is until the next convention. Is there any discussion with respect to that action?

There appearing to be none and this takes only a majority vote, all in favor of deferral for one year signify by saying aye. Opposed no.

By your action proposed amendment 22 has been deferred for one year.

Proposed amendment 23 on page 32 in your book would establish procedures a league must observe when a bowler is dismissed for causes other than nonpayment of league fees and/or improper withdrawal.

The recommendation of the board of directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion with regard to proposed amendment 23?

LUKE FORREST, President New Jersey State B.A.: I don't speak in opposition to this amendment, quite the contrary. I think it's an asset to our association officers working with our league officers. This rule applies to the grass root trouble area and I think the Legal Committee has done us a big favor in clarifying this rule, in particularly two areas. In changing the title of rule 114c in dismissals, they have changed it to reasons and procedures to what they recommend is non-payment of league fees and/or proper withdrawal. I think that is a step in the right direction. It's a clarification. I think the addition of rule 114e is also a clarification which will help us in this area.

There is one thing I would like to add. I would like to make an amendment to this amendment. It's a minor change and I don't think it would raise any serious questions and if I may I would like to direct your attention to the heading of rule 114e where it says Dismissal — For Other Causes.

I would like to move to amend the proposal by inserting the words "improper conduct or" before the word "other" so that that sentence would read "Dismissal — For Improper Conduct or Other Cause."

It's been our experience for several dismissal consultations that we have had there is a wide range of improper conduct. There is no sense trying to label them all. They are all subject to certain types of interpretation, but I think that the title of improper conduct in that heading would be an asset for several of our league officers, league members in dealing with this particular problem.

OTERO: That motion to amend will require a second. Is there a second to the motion?

RAY MURDOCH, Los Angeles: I second the motion.

OTERO: Is there any discussion on the amendment to proposed amendment 23?

BEN PALUMBO, Buffalo, N.Y.: Mr. chairman and delegates, I am a little confused about the addition of the words "improper conduct." I think our section 114 deals more with withdrawals and why they withdrew and amounts of money that are not paid for league fees. The improper conduct is more particularly related to number, I think it's 26b where, we have last year or the year before, where we amended it just to conduct detrimental to bowling, et cetera.

The problem that bothers me is that I am not sure what he means. If it gets in the amendment it is just going to be a lot of uncertainty what is covered by that terminology. I think it is more properly part of a different rule and I think can be handled if there is that kind of conflict.

OTERO: Any further discussion with regard to the amendment to proposed amendment 23?

PALUMBO: I didn't have rule 26b. In fact it was changed last year and it says engaging in improper, unfair tactic or conduct in connection with the game of bowling. Penalty — suspension of membership.

I contend we already have a section that says exactly what this gentleman is trying to contend. It is superfluous.

FORREST: Everyone that has spoken so far I have no objection to their comments whatsoever. It was just the point of trying to clarify a section which would direct the ordinary league bowlers, league officers dealing with associations on this one area.

What they have mentioned is still included in this proposal, for other causes. It takes everything that has been mentioned. All I wanted to do was give direction to our ordinary bowlers when they go to the book and they see improper conduct or other causes they know they are in the right area.

OTERO: Any other discussion? Otherwise I think I am going to call the question, unless there is some objection.

What we have now is the amendment to the amendment, which would read other than the way you have it Dismissal — For Improper Conduct or Other Causes.

It requires only a majority vote with respect to this particular amendment to proposed amendment 23.

All in favor of the amendment to amendment signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have rejected the amendment to amendment 23.

Is there any further discussion on proposed amendment 23?

There being none and this would require two-thirds vote, all in favor of the adoption of proposed amendment 23 signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have adopted proposed amendment 23.

Proposed amendment 24 is on page 34 in your book. This would allow recognition of ABC awards when games bowled unopposed in advance of or after the regularly scheduled league match.

The recommendation of the Board of Directors is for rejection. Is there any discussion?

ROGER PILCHER, Nation's Capital Area B.A.: We would like to recommend action on this amendment be deferred until the next annual meeting of the Congress to allow time for further study and possible acceptable wording.

OTERO: Is there a second to that motion? That motion does take precedence over the motion for rejection. Seconded by Ron Dailey, Nation's Capital Area B.A.

OTERO: Is there any discussion on the motion to defer for one year for further study?

PILCHER: Yes, I would like to explain. We had prepared an amendment that we thought would allay the ABC fears, but my good friend the doctor has stated that we would be out of order if we placed this amendment.

Therefore, we felt that in order to service the bowlers that we have that are now bowling unopposed who feel that although their games are sanctioned they are not allowed to compete for awards that we should take the time to word it so that we can include them in that award program. I think it is a deserved effort and that we should try to include it in our regulations to take care of that population that this appears to leave out of the awards presentation.

KEN TAYLOR, Plano, Texas: Speaking on behalf of the Rules Committee, we can see very readily that we would have a lot of problems over this rule were it adopted.

It could be very easy to see that the contention would be made involving even one pin would affect the outcome of the game. Our whole concept that we're here for is a competitive sport and bowling unopposed was only adopted several years back just to ease the industry situation where they have a lot of in-house leagues or closed leagues that would benefit only themselves, but to throw this out and then to adopt a national rule to allow unopposed bowling and give an award for that we're totally opposed to.

OTERO: Is there any further discussion and this is on the motion to defer for one year for further study, not on the merits of the motion itself.

JAMES STOKKE, President North Dakota B.A.: I strongly am in favor of deferring this for one year to try to get some wording in there as to a person can be eligible for awards. We have a man that bowled 300 last year, but he did not get ABC recognition. He didn't because he works every third week and he cannot bowl on that one week. He had to make it up. He made it up with a pacer and he didn't get any credit from ABC. We gave him the association high game award because we felt he earned it. He bowled on the same pair of lanes he was supposed to bowl on, followed every rule he was supposed to, but yet no ABC award for that 300. I think there should be some way so they do get recognition.

LEONARD MITZMAN, Cincinnati: Our opinion on this is that if the wording is not proper right now and the recommendation of the executive body is to reject. I feel that the amendment to defer will just prolong the agony and if these gentlemen feel they have something else to reword I think we ought to proceed with rejection, submit something that is acceptable and get on with it.

ANDY ANDRICHAK, Nation's Capital Area B.A.: My understanding of deferring this thing is that it would permit the ABC Rules Committee to better rewrite it to fit all situations. Let the experts rewrite it. Then we can hack it apart next year.

OTERO: I may say parenthetically that assumes they're interested in rewriting it. Is there any further discussion with regard to the matter before the group, which is the proposal to defer for another year for further study?

ZEIDELL: I don't think rewriting this is going to lose the intent of the proposer's amendment. The objective as I read it is that we are to consider ABC awards for unopposed bowling. I don't know how you can rewrite that to make it more clearer than it already is. Do we want to honor ABC awards for unopposed bowling and that is all it is and I think that we should reject it.

PILCHER: Well, you're going to bring out some laundry now.

We had discussed in our proposed amendment certain stipulations which we felt would be satisfactory to the ABC and to the delegates before. We were going to propose amending it so that the scores would count for ABC honor awards provided that a league official or a member of the opposing team were there when the game was bowled.

Now, hidden behind all this discussion seems to be an inference that bowlers aren't honest. Maybe some of them aren't, but all of us shouldn't have to pay for that and we should be able to put some language in here that would permit the majority of us to earn those awards.

JOHN SIEREN, Arlington, Texas: You know that when you're bowling unopposed there is nobody else there, there are no distractions, there is no opposition and even though the lanes are exactly the same as they would be in a league there are a lot of differences that favor the unopposed bowling and you might have situations where people would want to bowl unopposed in an attempt to get an honor score. I think the motion to defer should be rejected and also the proposal.

ED TRABEL, Ft. Wayne, Ind.: Just this season we have a nine team league bowling in one house. Unfortunately, the man bowled a 300 game was bowling unopposed. I think there should be some kind of stipulation if the team is sanctioned for nine and he bowls a 300 there should be some kind of ruling by the ABC to cover that sanctioned 300.

OTERO: Any further discussion? What you have before you is a motion to defer for one year for further study proposed amendment 24. This requires only a majority vote.

All in favor of deferral for one year signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have defeated the motion to defer.

All in favor stand up, please. This is the motion to defer. Please be seated. All opposed please stand up. By your action, you have defeated the motion to defer further study for one year.

What you have before you now is the motion to reject. Is there any discussion on the motion to reject?

ANDRICHAK: I have a typed amendment to present to the Rules Committee or whoever is going to . . .

OTERO: Is this the amendment that was previously presented to the chair?

ANDRICHAK: Gentlemen, we had a little agreement here that wasn't followed. If you're going to play by the rules then don't pull it on other people.

The ABC delegates of the 93rd Convention of Delegates have voted to offer the following amendment to proposed amendment 24. Add after the last word of the proposed amendment the following phrase, "provided that a member of the opposing team or one of the league officers is present when the unopposed bowling occurs."

Would you like a typed copy?

OTERO: I do have a typed copy.

ANDRICHAK: I changed it a little bit.

OTERO: Would you begin again.

ANDRICHAK: Add after the last word of the proposed amendment the following phrase, "provided that a member of the opposing team or one of the league officers is present when the unopposed bowling occurs."

OTERO: Yes, that is what I have.

ANDRICHAK: You have a little bit more there. I was going to stipulate something in regard to individuals but after listening here I think individuals have the same rights as teams as long as they are monitoring. You all should have no objection.

OTERO: First of all, I want to thank you for being kind enough to present this to us before the session because it does give us the chance to discuss it.

Dr. Leone and myself did discuss it. It was our opinion without really much debate that since it expands the amendment that it is improper to amend, and that was our ruling and we so indicated to you that would be our ruling, but we officially make that our ruling, that you are now requiring, for example, that somebody be present from the opposing team or that you have some league officer. That was not included in the original amendment.

While you can amend to restrict, and I think an analogy that we use every year is if we are going to have a dues increase of a dollar, an amendment that would reduce the increase from a dollar to 50 cents would be an appropriate amendment, but an amendment that would increase it from a dollar to $1.50 would be an extension. It would not be proper. This is an extension of your amendment. You are now requiring a member of the opposing team or a league officer be present.

So the ruling of the chair is that it is not a proper amendment.

ANDRICHAK: Mr. chairman, personal order, personal privilege, whatever you want to call it. I don't recall that this has ever been done. I would like to move that the chair be overruled by the delegates assembled who are the voters here.

OTERO: That is called an appeal. You're certainly entitled to appeal the ruling of the chair.

ANDRICHAK: I am appealing the ruling of the chair.

OTERO: This is one time when the chair is allowed to speak on the merits. However, I think I already expressed myself by giving the illustration so I don't intend to do it. Is there any further discussion on the appeal of the ruling of the chair that such an amendment would be out of order.

FRANK BARNHART, Greater St. Louis B.A.: There is nothing in this amendment that would require somebody to be present. This amendment simply says only those scores when somebody was present would count in a league. Many leagues already have such a rule. Also this amendment would reject the number of scores recognized by the proposed amendment and, therefore, this amendment is a restrictive amendment and, therefore, acceptable under parliamentary procedure.

LOWELL ROTHSCHILD, Tuscon, Ariz.: What I am concerned about is somebody suggested that in fact this isn't a democratic process.

I would like to say to you that I believe that your ruling was correct and I think it should be submitted immediately to the delegates assembled because at no time historically has anybody been denied the right to vote, which is the inference that there was some kind of . . . that an arrangement was going to come out differently.

I will tell you when we get to the discussion on the motion you're really discussing a serious philosophic issue when you get to go out and bowl by yourself. I am opposed to this motion. It should be defeated. The appeal should be denied and the substance of the motion should be defeated.

OTERO: Any further discussion on the appeal of the chair ruling that the amendment would be not a proper amendment?

There appearing to be none, the vote, the affirmative vote would be to uphold the appeal. In other words, if you voted aye you will agree with the appeal, you're overruling the ruling of the chair. All in favor of overruling the chair signify by saying aye. Opposed no.

By your action you have sustained the ruling of the chair. Thank you.

You have before you proposed amendment 24 and the recommendation is for rejection.

OTERO: The matter before you is the recommendation for rejection. It takes a majority vote. All in favor of rejection signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have rejected proposed amendment 24.

Because our court reporter has to change the tape and because we are moving rather rapidly we will recess for 10 minutes. We will be back at 3 o'clock.

TESSMAN: Gentlemen, at this morning's session we gave you the registered count of officers, directors and delegates. As you know, we continue the registration process through the closing of the ballot boxes. The final total for this convention is 1,329.

OTERO: Proposed amendment 25 provides that we will eliminate restriction on the amount that may be charged for all events contests.

Is there any discussion? The recommendation is for approval. Is there discussion with regard to proposed amendment 25?

There appearing to be none, this will require a two-thirds vote, all in favor of adoption of proposed amendment 25 signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have adopted proposed amendment 25.

Proposed amendment number 26, page 36 in your book, would enable ABC to sanction tournaments conducting more than one special feature.

Again the recommendation is for adoption, that is the recommendation of the Board of Directors is for adoption.

Is there any discussion with regard to proposed amendment number 26? There appearing not to be, this would require a two-thirds vote for you to adopt proposed amendment 26.

All in favor signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have adopted proposed amendment 26.

We have two resolutions. The resolution that I will be referring to now is the New Equipment resolution and I will read it.

Whereas, the delegates at the 1977-78 convention authorized the ABC Board of Directors to amend any provisions currently in the rule book with regard to the lane dressing procedures and to permit any such revision in dressing procedures to be put in force immediately, and

Whereas, research and testing involving conditioning of lanes is continuing.

Be it resolved, by the delegates in annual session on March 23, 1984 that if during the 1984-85 season tests demonstrate the revision in the lane dressing procedures are in order, the ABC Board of Directors shall be authorized to amend the rules governing such lane dressing procedures. The rules amended by the board shall be put in force immediately.

Be it further resolved, that any such revision approved by the board under the interim procedure shall be submitted to the delegates at the 1985 convention for ratification by this body.

Respectfully submitted, the New Equipment Committee, the names of that committee and by its Chairman Thomas W. McKay.

Is there any discussion with respect to this resolution? Since it deals with a change in the constitution it will require two-thirds vote.

All in favor of the adoption of the resolution signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have adopted the New Equipment resolution.

The last resolution is one submitted by the Rules Committee.

Whereas, a resolution was adopted by the delegates in convention in Baltimore, Md., on March 19, 1982, authorizing a committee to test various procedures to improve the pace of bowling in sanctioned leagues during the 1982-83 season and to permit modification or variances in existing ABC rules for leagues participating in the test program; and

Whereas, a resolution as adopted by the delegates in convention in Niagara Falls, N.Y., on March 18, 1983, authorizing the committee under the auspices of the National Bowling Council to continue testing various procedures to improve the pace of bowling in sanctioned leagues during the 1983-84 season and to permit modification or variances in existing ABC rules for leagues participating in the test program; and

Whereas, the need for further in-depth testing is deemed to be necessary; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the committee working under the auspices of the National Bowling Council be authorized to continue testing various procedures to improve the pace of bowling in sanctioned leagues during the 1984-85 season and to permit modification or variances in existing ABC rules for leagues participating in any test program.

Respectfully submitted, the Rules Committee and their names and its Chairman Henry J. Lapinski.

MERRILL BEMENT, Morris County (N.J.) B.A.: My question is I would like to know how far this test program has progressed and what the status is right now so that we have some kind of idea is this going to formalize in another year or added for another year at our convention after next year.

OTERO: Mr. Lapinski, do you wish to speak to this or have one of your committee members speak to it?

HENRY LAPINSKI: I will speak to that, Mr. Otero.

The results of the pace of bowling were a mixed bag. There were a lot of people that objected to the categories of the test that were taken and there was continued input into the national office with regards to these tests. We want to try again. At the moment there are no tests in effect. However, we propose together with the National Bowling Council to establish other means of tests that would be satisfactory to try to increase the pace of bowling. This is not a closed issue, gentlemen.

OTERO: Is there any further discussion with respect to the resolution by the Rules Committee? Since this requires the suspension of a rule, even on a limited basis, it would require two-thirds vote.

All in favor of the resolution signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have adopted the resolution of the Rules Committee with respect to the pace of bowling experiment.

President Bogle, thank you very much and that concludes the regular legislative session.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: Thank you very much, Jack, for your usual fine job. We thank you.

We now have a resolution by Vice President Paul O. Mohn.

PAUL MOHN: Mr. President, with your permission I would give the resolution from here to conserve time.

Whereas, the delegates in annual session at the 1983 ABC Convention authorized an amount not to exceed $250,000 to be made available to the National Bowling Council for the 1984-85 fiscal year upon approval of the Board of Directors, and

Whereas, the American Bowling Congress, Women's International Bowling Congress, Bowling Proprietors Association of America, AMF and Brunswick have each committed an equal amount for that season and annually to the National Bowling Council Promotion fund, and

Whereas, this promotion fund has greatly enhanced the sport of bowling with the general public, and

Whereas, noticeable progress has been made in the game and in ABC membership, and

Whereas, because of the necessity of long range planning which often requires the allocation of funds more than one year in advance,

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the delegates in annual session at the 1984 ABC Convention that upon recommendation of the Finance and Budget Committee and approval by the ABC Board of Directors, an amount not to exceed $250,000 may be made available to the Council during the 1985–86 fiscal year, providing WIBC, BPAA and the two major manufacturers made equal contributions during that fiscal year.

The Board of Directors recommends adoption to the delegates. Seconded by Jerry Ludwig, St. Louis.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: Gentlemen, you have heard the motion. Is there any discussion?

JAMES McGUIRE, Central Connecticut: I would just like to know something here. When this was first adopted 12 years ago, I am pleased to see the equality I stood for is still with us, but this morning's presentation by the NBC shows there are 4 participating members. Is there some secret how much money the other nine are contributing? We know five members, including us are contributing $250,000 apiece. How much are these others contributing, money-wise?

PRESIDENT BOGLE: Mr. Mohn, as chairman of the Finance and Budget Committee.

MOHN: Of the American Bowling Congress, but not of NBC. I would respectfully call on Roger Tessman.

TESSMAN: In order to encourage other people in the industry to participate in the NBC activities and to make contributions, a scale has been devised.

As you have indicated the major members pay the $250,000. The other members pay on a proration basis of that on a size factor. I don't want to give an actual dollar and cent figure here for fear I might give you the wrong figure. It is not hidden or secret information. We will be in a posture to provide that to you in future communications that we send to all local associations.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: The motion before the house is for approval of the resolution on the National Bowling Council. All those in favor signify by saying aye. Opposed no. By your action you have approved the resolution on the National Bowling Council.

Is there any new business to come before the delegates?

BOB WESOLOWSKI, Pittsburgh: Just a clarification. The legislation that we voted on comes into effect on Aug. 1. The portion of the legislation that we voted on regarding the certifications, will they be in effect during the 1983–84 season or will the new measurements be carried over?

PRESIDENT BOGLE: All of the amendments are effective Aug. 1 excepting for the first eight which deal with Olympic Committee and 9 which deals with the new term of the officers of the Congress.

Mr. Tessman has a further announcement.

TESSMAN: As you recall, gentlemen, the legislation that you amended today made for you the opportunity to take the measurements at the tail plank or across the rear row of pin spots. So that option would continue in effect until Aug. 1.

Therefore, it would be at the rear row of pin spots, but I think as a matter of practicality and implementation they will all come in this year at the rear row of pin spots, because it was by your urging that the committee gave consideration to this. Your first action on this was in the form of a suggestion and that suggestion proved to be a very viable one. Then it became legislation. Now the evolution has been to go to the rear row of pin spots. So it will take care of itself.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: Has the staff been able to locate the ballot committee? Chairman of the ballot committee.

ELWIN ISHAM: Gentlemen, we counted the ballots today in fast order. I think it was a record time for counting, but you guys acted so fast on the legislation that we even look slow. The total ballots cast were 1,164, of which 13 were null and void. There were 8 with write-in votes and 1,143 electing the entire slate.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: Thank you very much, Mr. Isham, and I declare the nominees elected. President-Elect William DeHaven will make his acceptance speech tonight at the President's dinner dance.

PALUMBO: Mr. President, I would like to make a comment regarding Wesley Bogle.

We passed some legislation today that jokingly referred to our President as a pregnant President. He had a nine month term. Our legislation today shows that he will be delivered on May 1 and be out of office and I would like to give him a round of applause by our body for being courageous enough and congenial enough to allow his one year term as the most prestigious position in ABC, President, to be curtailed to a nine month term. Being on committees, I know Wes was totally in favor of this cutting short of his term and I think that he should get a round of applause for making our organization a better organization.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: You know, I have very modestly said to a number of groups around the country that I have been able to do in nine months what it took my predecessors a year, but that is only because I have had great cooperation from the staff and the members of the Board of Directors and I do appreciate your recognition.

At this time the chair recognizes Donald Smith of Dayton, Ohio.

DONALD SMITH: Mr. President, I move all the acts of the American Bowling Congress, its officers, agents and directors and servants in the furtherance of business since the last annual meeting of the American Bowling Congress be approved and ratified. Seconded by Stan Schreier, Southeast District, Calif.

PRESIDENT BOGLE: Is there any discussion? Gentlemen, you have heard the motion. All in favor signify by saying aye. Opposed no.

By your action you have recognized the deeds of the Board of Directors during the past year.

Now, with your concurrence I will declare the 1984 Convention of the American Bowling Congress adjourned sine die.

(Whereupon the convention was adjourned.)

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Corporate Organization

The American Bowling Congress (ABC) is organized to adopt and enforce uniform laws, rules, qualifications, conditions and methods of playing the game of American Tenpins, to govern bowlers, teams, leagues and tournaments in its membership, to increase an interest in the bowling game and to exercise care and supervision over all affiliated bowling organizations, associations and establishments in the Western Hemisphere.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Method of accounting —
The books of account of ABC are maintained on the accrual basis, except for certain membership dues.

(b) Property and equipment —
The cost of property and equipment acquired is depreciated using the straight-line method of depreciation. Tournament equipment is depreciated over an eight year life and office furniture and equipment over five to 10 years.

(c) Membership dues recognition —
Membership dues are recognized when remitted, of which the majority are received during the first eight months of the fiscal year.

(d) Investment in Bowlers' Building Corporation —
ABC's investment in the Bowlers' Building Corporation (BBC) is accounted for using the equity method. Summarized financial information for BBC for fiscal 1984 and 1983 is shown below:

	As of July 31, 1984	1983
Cash	$ 4,896	$ 2,575
Receivables	86,023	38,389

	For the Year Ended July 31, 1984	1983

(e) Magazine revenue and advertising —
Magazine revenue and advertising includes an allocation of membership dues and certification fees, respectively, of $235,226 and $16,980 in 1984, and $248,424 and $17,134 in 1983. This revenue relates to magazine subscriptions issued to each ABC league and certified bowling establishment and is based on half of the full subscription price.

(f) Fund balance —
The fund balance is composed of two separate funds, the operating and the tournament, detailed below:

	Operating	Tournament	Total
Balance (deficit), July 31, 1982	$5,073,080	$ (4,573)	$5,068,507
Net income	1,758,683	99,207	1,857,890

Balance, July 31, 1984	$7,809,017	$428,185	$8,237,202

The budget and finance committee designates portions of the operating fund for specific purposes. At July 31, 1984, the operating fund consists of the following:

Designated funds —
National Bowling Hall of Fame Indemnification	$1,000,000
Lane dressing measuring development	500,000
General fund	100,000
	1,600,000
Fund balance not designated	6,209,017
	$7,809,017

(g) Tournament deposits —
Reservation money is collected from teams for the next year's National Tournament. Amounts received and any interest earned are both deferred as the funds are to be used exclusively for next year's tournament.

3. Income Tax Status

The Internal Revenue Service has issued a determination letter dated November 6, 1970, granting ABC an exemption from Federal income taxes. ABC is also exempt from Wisconsin and Illinois income taxes.

4. Pension Plan

ABC employes are covered under the "ABC Retirement Plan." ABC's policy is to fund pension costs accrued. The total pension cost for fiscal 1984 and 1983 was $187,548 and $145,012 of which $21,960 and $21,429 was charged to the Young American Bowling Alliance, Inc. in 1984 and 1983, respectively. A summary of selected plan information as of October 1, 1983, the date of the latest actuarial valuation, is set forth below:

Present value of accumulated plan benefits:
Vested	$2,845,826
Nonvested	155,334
Total	$3,001,160
Net assets available for benefits	$4,175,691
Actuarial cost method	Frozen Entry Age
Investment return assumed	8%

Under the provisions of Statements of Financial Accounting Standards Nos. 35 and 36, the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits reflects employe salaries earned to date and does not consider the impact of future salary increases from inflation or otherwise. Plan assets exceed the above-described actuarially computed present value of accumulated plan benefits primarily because ABC's funding policy, in accordance with the recommendations of ABC's actuary and commonly recognized funding techniques, considers such future salary increases.

5. Guarantee

During 1982, the Bowling Redevelopment Corporation, a fully owned subsidiary of National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum, Inc., entered into a construction loan agreement with Centerre Bank of St. Louis, making available a $2.5 million line of credit. During 1984, the line was increased to $3 million. This is to be used in constructing and to be secured by the Hall of Fame. The ABC and the WIBC have each agreed to guarantee any borrowings under this line. As of July 31, 1984, a total of $2,640,308 has been borrowed under the line.

6. Note Receivable from Young American Bowling Alliance, Inc.

The note receivable from the Young American Bowling Alliance, Inc. is interest free and has a due date of August 1, 1984, which was subsequently extended to August 1, 1985. It is management's intent to not call for payment on the note, and formal committee action extending payment terms is planned. Since eventual collection of the note is not anticipated at this time, the note was fully reserved for.

7. Line of Credit

ABC has a bank line of credit arrangement in the amount of $500,000. There are no compensating balance arrangements. There were no borrowings under this line at July 31, 1984, or during the year then ended.

8. Notes Receivable from National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum, Inc.

The notes receivable from the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum, Inc. are interest free and have a due date of March 7, 1985, unless extended by ABC. Management's intent is to not call for payment on the notes, and formal extension of the notes is planned. Since eventual collection is not anticipated at this time, the notes were fully reserved for at July 31, 1984. Subsequent to July 31, 1984, an additional $47,500 was loaned to the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum, Inc.

To the Board of Directors of American Bowling Congress:

We have examined the balance sheets of AMERICAN BOWLING CONGRESS (an Illinois corporation without capital stock and not-for-profit) as of July 31, 1984 and 1983, and the statements of income and expenses and changes in fund balance and changes in financial position for the years then ended. Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of American Bowling Congress as of July 31, 1984 and 1983, and the results of its operations and the changes in its financial position for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary schedules (Exhibits I and II) are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

(A listing of the individual membership for each state and local association is available in the state-by-state listings on the preceding pages.)

EDITOR'S NOTE:

The above listings are comparatives of state and local association playing strengths. For the first time in 1983–84, ABC membership was counted on an individual basis and is printed on pages 19–35.

Our ranking list continues to show playing strength because, according to Article 3, Section 1 of the ABC Constitution, delegate representation for the 1985 Convention will be based on that figure and not actual membership.

Playing strength is the number of bowlers counted for each sanctioned league, regardless of whether a member bowls in more than one league. For every 10 team, five player league, the playing strength is 50. For 10 mixed league teams with two males per team, that playing strength is 20.

Dues and individual membership counts do not correlate because some associations that did not change from the team membership plan to the individual membership plan until the 1983–84 season remitted dues for the 1982–83 season AFTER Aug. 1, 1983. Future membership and dues figures will not correlate either because of variations of crossover association participation by some members and the fact that a summer league bowler purchases membership for that summer and the following full season at no additional cost. While the local associations show those participants, ABC does not receive additional revenue from a member who has paid in another league.
